Local food and music at the Hughes Main Library

Greenville, SC - On Saturday, May 30, The Amazing Read 2009 series of events came to a close with the Bluegrass and Barbecue event at the Hughes Main Library.

The Greenville County Library System held the second Amazing Read series from April-May, 2009. This year's book, Saints at the River by Ron Rash, was set in Tamassee, SC. A series of events, including lectures, book discussions and author-readings, which reflected major scenes and themes from the novel took place in the two-month span.

Asheville-based bluegrass band Silver Dagger performed two free sets. The crowd enjoyed local barbecue from Bucky's Bar-B-Q.
