The Greenville County Library System Continues Family Fridays 2009-2010!
Paul Taylor Performs at the Hughes Main Library

Greenville, SC – Take a trip to the land of bouncing kangaroos and cuddly koalas through stories, poetry and music as Aussie native Paul Taylor presents “Matilda and the Dreamtime” on Friday, November 13 at 7:00p at the Hughes Main Library.

Paul Taylor celebrates the culture of his Australian homeland in shows for all ages, sharing stories and music of Aboriginal and European Australia. Taylor delights in celebrating the culture of his homeland through story, song and didgeridoo. He travels throughout the U.S., performing to all ages. By sharing Australian stories and music, acclaimed performing artist Paul Taylor helps bridge cultures. His music has won national awards, including the NAPPA and Parent’s Choice Gold Award for Storytelling and a Storytelling World Award.

Family Fridays is a series of free programs designed for the entire family and is held on a Friday evening once each month. Families who attend Family Fridays programs enjoy performances by a variety of talented professional artists, including musicians, storytellers and actors.

Although most Family Fridays events are open to all ages, this program is best appreciated by school aged children and above. Call 527-9248 for more information.

Family Fridays is sponsored by the Friends of the Greenville County Library System.

*Founded in 1921, the Greenville County Library System operates 12 facilities, a bookmobile and a website that provide information, materials and engaging programs delivered with world-class technology and a customer-centric approach.
