Special holiday gifts for sale in the Friends Shop at the Hughes Main Library

Greenville, SC – If you are looking to fit some great gifts into your budget this holiday season, come explore the Friends Shop at the Hughes Main Library! Along with its usual stock of gently-used, low-cost books, the Friends Shop is now offering new unique gifts for all ages. Our selection includes journals, games, magnets, bookmarks and other book-related accessories perfect for holiday gifts and stocking stuffers!

When you purchase an item from the Friends Shop, not only are you taking home a quality gift for yourself or your loved ones, you are helping with a great cause. Proceeds from each item purchased benefits the Friends of the Greenville County Library System, a non-profit organization whose purpose is to support the library system by providing financial assistance. The Friends help fund year-round programs, like the Family Fridays series, as well as special activities and the publication of Access, the library's bimonthly newsletter.

The Friends Shop at the Hughes Main Library has regular operating hours of 10:00a-4:00p Monday-Saturday. Special holiday hours include Sunday afternoons from 2:30p-5:00p (now until December 21). For more information about the Friends Shop, call 242-5000 x3004 or x2286. Come take advantage of great book and gift selections while helping an important cause!
