

Teen Poetry Contest

Wednesday, April 1-Thursday, April 30

It's time to celebrate National Poetry Month by entering our annual teen poetry contest! See what literary masterpiece you can create by following this year's theme: change. Poems will be judged based on originality, literary style and interpretation of the theme. All Greenville County residents ages 13-18 may enter, and prizes will be awarded for two age groups (middle school and high school). For more information or entry submission, email jbabb@greenvillelibrary.org or call 242-5000 x2247.

Read more about prizes and guidelines:

Best Overall & Honorable Mention – Middle School

Best Overall & Honorable Mention – High School

Best Overall– Leather bound journal

Honorable Mention - $10 gift certificate

- Open to all Greenville County teens 13-18.
- Entries must be the original work of the submitting participant.
- Entries that contain inappropriate content will not be considered. Remember not to send anything that would make your grandmother blush.
- Entries must be submitted electronically as an email attachment to an email to: jbabb@greenvillelibrary.org
- All submissions must have the participant's full name, grade, address and telephone number.
- One entry per person.
- All entries must be submitted by April 30th.
- Winning entries will be posted in the teen section of the Greenville County Library System's website.
- Participants' entries may appear in future GCLS teen publications.