

ENVIRONMENTAL AND AGRICULTURAL ORGANIZATIONS

Adopt-A-Road

Adopt-A-Highway

www.greenvillecounty.org/solid_waste/adopt_a_road.asp

Adopt-A-Road and Adopt-A-Highway are volunteer litter pick-up programs in Greenville County. Program volunteers are assigned a 2-mile section of an adopted highway or county road in Greenville County.

Adopt-A-Road

Environmental Education Specialist

(864) 243-9672

adoptaroad@greenvillecounty.org

Adopt-A-Highway

Program Coordinator

(864) 241-1224

bobokey@scdot.org

(Updated 06/11)

Clemson Extension Home and Garden Information Center

<http://hgic.clemson.edu/>

The Home and Garden Information Center has provided research-based information on landscaping, gardening, plant health, household pests, food safety and preservation, nutrition, physical activity, and health to South Carolina residents since 1999.

(888) 656-9988 (SC residents only, 9:00 am – 1:00 pm, M – F)

(Updated 06/11)

Clemson University Cooperative Extension Service

www.clemson.edu/greenville/

The purpose of the Extension Service is to provide sound, science-based information and programs to small farmers, homeowners, and commercial growers to assist them in the areas of agriculture and horticulture.

301 University Ridge, Suite 4300

Greenville, SC 29601

(864) 232-4431

(864) 232-4738 (Fax)

dhoward@clemson.edu

(Updated 06/11)

Foothills Animal Rescue

www.foothillsrescue.com

Foothills Animal Rescue is South Carolina's only all volunteer 24 hour Wildlife and Exotic Rescue. The group is dedicated to the treatment of injured and orphaned wildlife with the intent of returning that animal back to the wild. Foothills Animal Rescue also accepts discarded and unwanted Exotic pets with the hope of finding that animal a safe and happy home.

PO Box 31295

Greenville, SC 29608

(864) 282-1917

wildlifeace@gmail.com

(Updated 06/11)

The Friends of the Reedy River

www.friendsofthereedyriver.org/

The Friends of the Reedy River is a local, grassroots, volunteer-based, nonprofit conservation organization dedicated to promoting, preserving, and restoring the Reedy River.

P.O. Box 9351
Greenville, SC 29604
(864) 255-8946
(Updated 06/11)

Greenville County Bird Club

<http://gcbirdclub.org/>

The Greenville County Bird Club provides opportunities for observing, photographing, learning about, and protecting wild birds and their habitats.

Jeff Click, Outings Coordinator
217 Bishop Drive
Easley, SC 29640
jeffclick@gcbirdclub.org

Don Faulkner, President
101 James Street
Easley, SC 29642
donrfaulkner@aol.com
(Updated 01/11)

Sierra Club – the William Bartram Group

<http://Sierraupstate.org>

The Bartram Group has approximately 1,000 members in Greenville, Spartanburg, Laurens, and Union Counties. The club's focus is environmental education through monthly programs and outings.

Sierra Club
William Bartram Group
P.O. Box 5923
Greenville, SC 29606-5923
bartramgroup@netscape.net
(Updated 06/11)

South Carolina Native Plant Society – Upstate Chapter

www.scnps.org

The South Carolina Native Plant Society is a 501c-3 non-profit organization dedicated to protecting, preserving, and restoring native plant species and communities. The group works through educational efforts and active engagement in plant community rescue and restoration. Education offered includes monthly meetings with speakers and assisting in curriculum development. The Society is also engaged in advocacy for native plant communities and other environmental issues.

Rick Huffman, President
PO Box 759
Pickens, SC 29671
huffmanv@bellsouth.net
(Updated 06/11)
