Porkchop Productions brings “Holly and the Snowman” to the Hughes Main Library

Greenville, SC - The monthly Family Fridays series continues on December 12, 2008 at 7:00p at the Hughes Main Library with Porkchop Productions original performance, “Holly and the Snowman.”

Porkchop Productions is a two member theater group who bring traditional fairy tales with a modern twist to schools, summer camps and libraries across the southeast. In their original holiday production, "Holly and the Snowman," children are invited to join Holly the elf as she figures out a way to make a snowman in 98 degree heat.

Family Fridays is a series of free programs designed for the entire family and is held on a Friday evening once each month. Families who attend Family Fridays programs enjoy performances by a variety of talented professional artists, including musicians, storytellers and actors. All ages are welcome.

Family Fridays is sponsored by the Friends of the Greenville County Library System.
