Bright Star Children's Theatre brings nationally acclaimed performance to the Hughes Main Library

Greenville, SC - The monthly Family Fridays series continues on Friday, January 9, 2009 at 7:00p at the Hughes Main Library with the Bright Star Children's Theatre original, "Heroes of the Underground Railroad."

Bright Star Children's Theatre (based in Asheville, NC) will perform their award-winning original play "Heroes of the Underground Railroad." This nationally acclaimed theatrical experience honors the heroic figures of America's Underground Railroad. From Harriet Tubman and the Abolition Movement to Levi Coffin and the inspiring tale of Henry "Box" Brown, this play will introduce your family to those who bravely brought light to America's darkest chapter. Although Family Fridays is normally appropriate for the entire family, this production is best appreciated by school-aged children and above.

Family Fridays is a series of free programs designed for the entire family and is held on a Friday evening once each month. Families who attend Family Fridays programs enjoy performances by a variety of talented professional artists, including musicians, storytellers and actors.

Family Fridays is sponsored by the Friends of the Greenville County Library System.
