South Carolina Association of Counties

www.sccounties.org/

The South Carolina Association of Counties is the only organization dedicated to statewide representation of county government in South Carolina. Membership in SCAC includes all 46 counties, which are represented by elected and appointed county officials who are dedicated to improving county government. SCAC is a nonpartisan, nonprofit organization that operates with a full-time staff in its Columbia offices. It is governed by a 29-member Board of Directors composed of county officials from across South Carolina and selected by members at the Association's Annual Conference. The Association strives to "Build Stronger Counties for Tomorrow" by working with member counties in the fields of research, information exchange, educational promotion and legislative reporting.
