

HOBBY ORGANIZATIONS

Antique Automobile Club of America. South Carolina Region

The purpose of the Club is the research, development, and restoration of original antique and classic cars, as well as the fellowship of members. Individuals must be a national member in order to join the local group.

South Carolina Region
Charles R. (Bob) Blankenship, President
1 Lauren Leigh Court
Greer, SC 29651
(864) 877-6584
bobblanken55@att.net
(Updated 09/11)

Foothills Piecemakers Quilting Guild

www.foothillsquilts.com/

An organization formed to create and encourage interest in Quilt making and quilts. Visitors are welcome at monthly meetings. The Guild has programs and classes on quilting by nationally known instructors and participates in local festivals, schools, and quilt shows. Monthly meetings are held the 1st Thursday at 7:00 pm at Grace Baptist Church Fellowship Hall (located on the lower level) at 5020 Old Spartanburg Road, Taylors, South Carolina. For more information on the monthly meetings, please e-mail the Guild at the address below and a reply will be sent as soon as possible.

PO Box 26482
Greenville, SC 29616
foothillsmail1@yahoo.com
(Updated 02/12)

Greenville Coin Club

The focus of the organization is for the enjoyment and education of those who are interested in coins and currency. There is a short business meeting followed by an auction of coins and currency. The club meets every Tuesday evening at 7:30 pm at the Sears Shelter, 100 Park Place, Greenville, SC 29602.

David Burzinski, President
bmwdave1964@yahoo.com
(Updated 06/11)

Greenville Woodworkers Guild www.greenvillewoodworkers.com/

The club aims to assist members with improving their woodworking skill level, to assist other upstate charitable organizations with their skills, and to elevate the public's knowledge of woodworking as an art form. The Guild operates an Education Center Shop: a fully equipped woodworking shop usually open weekdays from 9:00 am to 9:00 pm and 9:00 am to 5:00 pm on Saturdays.

Wayne Comstock, President
pres@greenvillewoodworkers.com

Education Center
gwgshop@bellsouth.net

Street Address:
209 Holly Ridge Dr.
Mauldin, SC 29662
(864) 299-9663

Mailing Address: (Except for membership)
PO Box 825
Mauldin, SC 29662
(Updated 02/12)

Greer Stamp Club

Meetings are held at the Jean M. Smith Library of Greer on the 2nd Saturday of the month from 9:00 am-11:30 am. No December meeting.

Susan Whitehead, President

c/o PO Box 2596

Easley, SC 29641

(864) 232-5557

stampahlic@aol.com

(Updated 09/11)

Palmetto Cutlery Club

www.palmettocutleryclub.org/

The Palmetto Cutlery Club is an organization dedicated to trading and collecting cutlery related items, combating fraud, counterfeiting and opposing misguided and unwise information in the knife collecting circles. The club welcomes anyone with an interest in cutlery. Regular scheduled meetings are held the 1st Tuesday of each month at 7:00 pm at the Greer Tennis Club, 226 Oakland Avenue, Greer, SC.

Hydrick Stewart, President

PO Box 1356

Greer, SC 29652

(864) 599-9194

Mark Mahaffey, Vice President

(864) 699-9433

(Updated 02/12)

Palmetto Pleaters

www.palmettopleaters.org

The Palmetto Pleaters are a local nonprofit chapter of the Smocking Arts Guild of America. The group organized in 2002 with the purpose of offering exciting opportunities for anyone interested in heirloom needlework. Guests are invited to visit one of the monthly meetings to learn more about the art and improve skills while sharing the group's love of many types of needlework, especially smocking. Beginners or experts are encouraged to join. Please email the club for information on joining.

palmettopleaters@bellsouth.net

(Updated 02/12)

Park Avenue Duplicate Bridge Club

An American Contract Bridge League sanctioned club whose members play duplicate bridge. The club meets Mondays from 9:30 am -1:00 pm at St. James Episcopal Church at 301 Piney Mountain Road.

Vernon Gooch, President

11 Woodtrace Circle

Greenville, SC 29615

(864) 675-1668

whitney28782@yahoo.com

(Updated 10/11)

Piedmont Wood Carvers Club

<http://piedmontwoodcarvers.com>

The club promotes wood carving as an art form and teaches interested persons to carve. Activities include weekly and monthly meetings and an annual competition show in the fall. The club meets on the 3rd Saturday for a carve-in beginning at 9:00 am and Wednesday evenings beginning at 6:00 pm in Room 17, Mauldin Cultural Center, 101 E. Butler Rd. Mauldin, SC.

Dorothy Pittman, President (2012)

PO Box 25393

Greenville SC 29616

(864) 235-0989

dottiepittman@hotmail.com

(Updated 04/12)

South Carolina Knitting Guild

<http://scknittingguild.com/>

The South Carolina Knitting Guild is a group of hand knitters of all levels of experience who meet to learn and have fun. Programs address areas of interest to the group and include new techniques, ways to improve knitting, and exchange of ideas. The group contributes hundreds of hand-knitted items to various charity groups each year. Meetings are the 2nd Monday of each month at 6:45 pm at the University Center in the Old McAllister Square at 225 South Pleasantburg Drive, Greenville, S.C.

email@scknittingguild.com

(Updated 02/12)

Upper South Carolina Basketmakers Guild

<http://www.orgsites.com/sc/uppersouthcarolinabasketmakersguild>

The guild promotes the art and tradition of basketry through instruction, public service, and community awareness. Guild meetings are the place to find instructors and mentors who help individuals learn and refine their skills. Monthly meetings are held at the Lutheran Church of Our Savior at 2600 Wade Hampton Blvd., Taylors, SC. Check the website for the date and time of the next meeting. Members participate in seminars and the bi-annual convention called Weave-In which brings together basket makers of every level to share techniques, to marvel at each other's talents, and to collect new supplies from the vendors.

Priscilla Phillips, President (2012)

106 Mesa Lane

Six Mile, SC 29682

(864) 650-2168

priscphil@bellsouth.net

(Updated 04/12)

Western South Carolina Gem and Mineral Society, Inc.

<https://sites.google.com/a/wescagems.org/www/home>

The Western South Carolina Gem & Mineral Society, Inc. of Greenville, SC was organized June 15, 1955 and has as its purpose the study and enjoyment of all fields related to gems, minerals, and earth science. Meetings are held the second Monday of each month at 7:30 pm. (Refreshments from 7:15-7:30 pm) at Northside United Methodist Church, 435 Summit Drive, Greenville. Visitors are welcome and are invited to become members of the organization. Annual dues are $15 for a single membership and $25 for a family membership.

John Atwell Rasmussen, President

PO Box 1663

Easley, SC 29641

(864) 607-6990

webmaster@wescagems.org

(Updated 02/12)
