

National Library Week 2010 Public Service Announcements

:10

Celebrate National Library Week! Visit the Greenville County Library System this week to find out how communities thrive @ your library.

A message brought to you by the American Library Association's Campaign for America's Libraries and the Greenville County Library System

:20

Public, school, academic and special libraries make a difference to millions of Americans, today more than ever. National Library Week is April 11-17. Celebrate today by visiting your library - in person or online and discover how communities thrive @ your library.

A message brought to you by the American Library Association's Campaign for America's Libraries and Greenville County Library System

:30

In today's economy, what's the one place you can go to get help with a resume, learn new job skills, connect to the Internet or just curl up with your favorite book – all for free? You can do all of that and more @ your library. Celebrate National Library Week, April 11-17. Communities thrive @ your library.

A message brought to you by the American Library Association's Campaign for America's Libraries and Greenville County Library System

:30

Today's libraries are modern community centers where everyone is invited to explore, dream and learn. All that's missing is you! This is National Library Week, so visit your library today – in person or online. Come see how your library helps the community thrive.

A message brought to you by the American Library Association's Campaign for America's Libraries and Greenville County Library System