New Book Discussion Group Continues This Fall at the Augusta Road Library
Group focuses on literature by African American authors

Greenville, SC – This September, the Reading in Color Book Discussion Group will continue at the Augusta Road (Ramsey Family) Branch of the Greenville County Library System.

The Reading in Color Book Discussion Group began in April 2009. "Other library locations found a niche with knitting and mystery book discussion groups, and the time seemed right to offer a program focusing on African American authors," says Augusta Road Branch Manager, Mary Springle.

Books featured include historical fiction, non-fiction and contemporary fiction titles. The series will continue through November and will begin again in January 2010.

The next book discussion, Act Like a Lady, Think Like a Man by Steve Harvey, will be held on Tuesday, September 15 at 6:30p. Call 277-0161 for more information and to register.
