The Greenville County Library System Opens Satellite Location in Slater Hall Annex

Greenville, SC - The Greenville County Library System is expanding library services to the Slater-Marietta community.

On Monday, April 27, 2009, the Library System will open a satellite library in the Slater Hall Annex at 5 Whitney Drive in Slater. A collection of popular titles for adults and children will be available on Mondays from 4:00p until 8:00p; Wednesdays from 10:00a until 2:00p; and Thursdays from 10:00a until 2:00p. Bookmobile service to the location will continue on Tuesdays on a bi-weekly basis from 2:00p until 4:30p.

In response to community requests and an offer from the Greenville County Recreation District to provide renovated space in the Slater Hall Annex to house the collection, the Slater Satellite Library will be open on an experimental basis. The level of usage over the next several months will help determine whether or not the Library System will maintain the service

For additional information about the Slater Satellite Library, call the Sargent Branch Library in Travelers Rest at 834-3650.
