The Greenville County Library System Seeks Summer Volunteers

Greenville, SC – The Greenville County Library System is a bustling place during the summer months and could use some extra help! The library is seeking volunteers to work on various projects in June and July, 2010. Volunteers are needed at all eleven library locations to help with summer reading registration, material circulation and family events.

Applicants must be at least 16 years old. Applications may be filled out and turned in at any library location, or find it online at www.greenvillelibrary.org.

To find out more about this exciting opportunity, contact Amy Pecht, Volunteer Coordinator, at 527-9286.

About the Greenville County Library System:

Founded in 1921, the Greenville County Library System operates 11 facilities, a bookmobile, and a website that provide information, materials, and engaging programs delivered with world-class technology and a customer-centric approach. The Library System offers free access to resources and experiences and continually strives to be the community's destination of choice for exploring the world. For more information, visit the Library's website at www.greenvillelibrary.org.
