

INTERGALACTIC FUN

ALL SUMMER LONG

Cosmic Pop Culture Exhibit

The Roper Mountain Science Center shares vintage items from their pop culture collection that explore America's fascination with space and space travel, including memorabilia related to classic science fiction franchises such as Star Trek, Star Wars, Buck Rogers, Flash Gordon, and more. Email explore@greenvillelibrary.org or call 527-9293 for more information.

Main, Jun 1-Jul 30

Cosmic Coloring Cafe

Create a colorful galactic masterpiece while enjoying beverages.

Materials provided or bring your own. Registration required.

Tue, Jun 5 & Aug 7, 7p-8:30p, Taylors

Mon, Jun 18, 3p-4:30p, Fountain Inn

Far Out Trivia

Test your knowledge of popular sci-fi fandoms.

Thu, Jun 14, 7p-8p, Taylors

Grown-up Gaming: Games! In! Space! ages 18+

Join us for a night of games including Clank! In! Space!, Cosmic Encounter, Mission: Red Planet, and Space Fluxx.

Tue, Jul 17, 31, 7p-8p, Greer

Thu, Jul 19, 6:30p-8:30p, Main, Meeting Room A

Young Adult Sci-Fi Book Club ages 18+

Read and come discuss popular young adult Sci-Fi novels.

Call 527-9258 for more information.

Cinder by Marissa Meyer

Tue, Jun 19, 7p-8p, Main

Red Rising by Pierce Brown

Tue, Jul 24, 7p-8p, Main

The Knife of Never Letting Go by Patrick Ness

Tue, Aug 14, 7p-8p, Main

America Explores Outer Space

Explore the past, present, and future of America's exploration of outer space. From the earliest experiments by Goddard through the 1969 landing on the moon to plans for a moon or Martian settlement in our lifetime, teacher Larry Bounds shares how the conquest of space became a reality with scale models, historic images, and NASA animations.

Registration required.

Tue, Jun 26, 6:30p-7:30p, Taylors

Sci-Fi Trivia

Test your knowledge of Sci-Fi books, movies, and television shows!

Dress up as your favorite Sci-Fi character to be entered into our costume contest! Prizes awarded to the sharpest minds and sharpest dressers!

Email explore@greenvillelibrary.org or call 527-9258 to register.

Registration required.

Tue, Jul 10, 6:30p-8:30p, Main, Meeting Room B & C

An Evening of Astronomy

Lee Ott from the Roper Mountain Astronomers Club presents an introduction to astronomy and the night sky. Learn recommended equipment and accessories for star gazers. Registration required.

Tue, Jul 10, 6:30p-7:30p, Five Forks

Science Fiction Films for All: Breaking Boundaries

Join Furman Associate Professor Dr. Roger Sneed as he examines the power of representation in science fiction films. Learn how recent films like Wonder Woman and Black Panther break the typical superhero mold.

Registration required. Call 527-9258 to register.

Wed, Jul 11, 6p-7p, Main, Meeting Room A

Murder at the Nir Cantina

Come to a remote outpost in the galaxy where a diverse crowd of space travelers rub shoulders until their usual nefarious activities are eclipsed by behavior much more sinister--a murder. Complete your character's individual objectives and try to solve the murder. In the event the minimum number of registered participants is not met, this event may be canceled. Registration is required and begins Monday, June 18.

Wed, Jul 18, 5:30p-8:30p, Meeting Rooms A-C

Call 527-9258 to register.

Tue, Jul 31, 5:30p-8:30p, Five Forks

Call 234-4904 to register.

Star Wars Crafts

Join other Star Wars fans to make themed crafts. Space is limited.

Registration opens on June 19. Registration required.

Thu, Jul 19, 6p-7p, Five Forks

Eclipse Over Clemson

Communications Director for the College of Science at Clemson University Jim Melvin, and photographer Pete Martin, discuss the book Eclipse Over Clemson: The Day Tigertown Will Never Forget. Dr. Donald Liebenberg, who has witnessed and researched 27 total solar eclipses, shares the science behind total eclipses. Book will be available for purchase with cash or check only. Email explore@greenvillelibrary.org or call 527-9293 to register. Registration required.

Wed, Aug 15, 6:30p-8p, Main, Meeting Room A

