

RECIPROCAL BORROWING

The Greenville County Library System offers residents of any county contiguous to Greenville County borrowing privileges at all its service points PROVIDED that residents of Greenville County are afforded the same borrowing privileges at all that county's public library service points. In providing these privileges, it is understood the residents of contiguous counties who are issued cards will agree to abide by all borrowing rules of the Greenville County Library.

Interlibrary loan services and access to selected digital materials, such as eBooks, audiobooks, etc. are not provided to users with cards obtained through this agreement.
