

GREENVILLE COUNTY (SC) LIBRARY SYSTEM
RECIPROCAL BORROWING

The Greenville County Library System offers residents of any South Carolina county contiguous to Greenville County borrowing privileges at all its service points provided that residents of Greenville County are afforded the same borrowing privileges at that county's public library service points. In providing these privileges, it is understood any resident of a contiguous county who is issued a Greenville County Library System card will agree to abide by the Code of Conduct and all borrowing rules of the Greenville County Library System.

Interlibrary loan services and access to selected digital materials, such as eBooks, audiobooks, etc. are not provided to users with cards obtained through this agreement.
